Thanks, Carrot...

You know, I work hard every day to be a good witch...

...respecting the traditions, the rules...

...it’s not fair that Saffron should become so famous with those kinds of tactics.

It’s really unfair.

Right at this very moment, when I’m at my lowest, you fall from the sky with a miracle solution to all my problems?!

What’s up with this Deus ex machina?!

It all looks suspicious to me; very suspicious!

Come on Carrot. This might have worked on us before, but we’re no longer foolish enough to fall for this kind of con game!
You see Carrot, I think that that’s what it means to grow up. Avoid the easy way out; appreciate the value of effort... ...there’s no point being jealous of the success of others!

Open-source and permissive
I want to give people the right to share, use, build and even make money upon the work I've created.
All pages, artworks and content were made with Free/Libre Open-Sources Software on Gnu/Linux, and all sources are on Pepper&Carrot website, Source menu. Commercial usage, translations, fan-arts, prints, movies, video-games, sharing, and reposts are encouraged.
You just need to give appropriate credit to the authors (artists, correctors, translators involved in the artwork you want to use), provide a link to the license, and indicate if changes were made. You may do so in any reasonable manner, but not in any way that suggests the authors endorses you or your use.

Quality entertainment for everyone, everywhere
Pepper&Carrot is a comedy/humor webcomic suited for everyone, every age.
No mature content, no violence. Free and open-source, Pepper&Carrot is a proud example of how cool could be free-culture.
I'm focusing a lot on quality, because free and open-source doesn't mean bad or amateur. Au contraire.
Let's change comic industry!
With less intermediary between audience and artist you pay less and I benefit more. You support me directly.
No publisher/distributor/marketing/fashion can force me to change Pepper&Carrot to fit their vision of 'the market'.
. . . Why not a single success couldn't 'snowball' a whole industry in crisis? We'll see...

Help me boost Pepper&Carrot production today
